what was physically said on the floor and promised by both sides. Now you are undoing it. So if you decide to proceed ahead and do this, it would be much better killing the bill which, of course, is I guess what many would like anyway, but it rather do that than play this shell game of what amounts to dishonesty.

PRESIDENT: Senator Wagner.

SENATOR WAGNER: Could I talk to Senator DeCamp.

PRESIDENT: I will give you your time, Senator Wagner. You want to use it however you wish.

SENATOR WAGNER: All right. John, Senator DeCamp, I was also interested in that debate and what was essentially recorded there.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp, Senator Wagner is asking you a question.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Yes, sir.

SENATOR WAGNER: And, John, if you would like to lay this over for a few days until you get that transcript, I would yield to that.

SENATOR DeCAMP: That is fine by me.

SENATOR WAGNER: Okay, let's lay the bill over until we get that and we can determine what was actually said here on the floor.

PRESIDENT: Is there objection? There is objection. If the Speaker wishes to take it off of the agenda, he may, otherwise the agenda is set out for us to follow. Do you want to move to...a motion is in order, I suppose, to pass over.

SENATOR WAGNER: Mr. President, I would move that we lay this bill over for several days.

PRESIDENT: The motion has been made to lay LB 465 over for several days. Second. Any discussion? If not, all those... Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President, the only thing I would like to say is that I have no objection in anybody wanting to get a copy of the transcript as to what was discussed on General File, what was said. I believe you are going to find out that I have been open and honest on this issue all the way across and I guess it upsets me a little bit that
